Diarise this event now and be part of the exciting new look and feel for the annual SASAS congress in 2014

Theme: The role of the animal scientist in securing food for the future

Date: 6—8 July 2014

Venue: Sanlam Auditorium—University of Pretoria

Our aim for 2014 is to combine the role of academic institutions and industry role players into a successful and relevant animal scientist congress. In this way applied research is conducted to improve efficiency and sustainability and the collaboration between role players helps to secure food for the future.
